EasyJet departure

EASYJET'S finance director has said he will leave the business, just days after winning a vote that could have cost him the job.

Andrew Findlay plans to work out his year-long notice period and will step down in May 2021.

His announcement comes just one working day after shareholders voted to save his job, and those of other top directors.

Last week, Sir Stelios Haji-ioannou, easyJet's founder and biggest shareholder, tried to get his fellow investors to oust Mr Findlay, chief executive Johan Lundgren and chairman John Barton.
