AN EASY WAY OUT

EASYJET finance director Andrew Findlay is leaving days after surviving a challenge by founder and shareholder Sir Stelios Haji-Ioannou.

Last week, Sir Stelios tried to get fellow investors to oust Mr Findlay, left, chief exec Johan Lundgren, chairman John Barton and a fourth director in a feud over a big Airbus order.

Mr Findlay said yesterday: "I have given notice to leave easyJet, but I remain fully committed to support Johan and ensure easyJet weathers this unprecedented time for the airline industry."
