

Home (//Www.chinadaily.com.cn)

/ World (//Www.chinadaily.com.cn/World) / China-Europe

China-Germany ties at a glance

chinadaily.com.cn | Updated: 2018-05-24 09:49

Tourism

A visitor learns to make Chinese lantern at the opening ceremony of the 52th ITB Berlin in Berlin, c

First Chinese tour groups set off for Germany in February 2003.

In 2017, 635,500 Germans visited China, up 1 percent compared to the year before. Germany is China's largest source of travelers from Europe.

In 2017, 743,300 Chinese mainland residents chose Germany as their first stop abroad, up 12.3 percent year-on-year.

Beijing International Airport, Air China and Frankfurt Airport launched the Air China-Easy Way service.
[Photo/VCG]

Previous

(//Www.chinadaily.com.cn/A/201805/24/WS5b061a2ca3103f6866eea516_7.Html)

Related Stories

Chinese cities where Merkel left footprints and forged friendships

(//www.chinadaily.com.cn/a/201805/23/WS5b04bfdba3103f6866eea004.html)

Merkel says Germany wants to strengthen multilateralism with China

(//www.chinadaily.com.cn/a/201805/20/WS5b00f85ca3103f6866ee975c.html)

German chancellor to visit China

(//www.chinadaily.com.cn/a/201805/18/WS5afe87cda3103f6866ee94b6.html)

English

中文

(//cn.chinadaily.com.cn)

Desktop

Copyright 1995 - 2019 . All rights reserved. The content (including but not limited to text, photo, multimedia information, etc) published in this site belongs to China Daily Information Co (CDIC). Without written authorization from CDIC, such content shall not be republished or used in any form.