NEWS IN BRIEF

EasyHotel chief dies

François Bacchetta, who joined easyHotel as chief executive in March last year, has died at the age of 56. Harm Meijer, the easyHotel chairman, paid tribute to the Frenchman's "wealth of experience, passion for our industry and dynamic leadership style". He spent 15 years at easyJet before joining easyHotel just as it was being delisted by the consortium of property investors that took control of the business in 2019. Bacchetta leaves a widow, Angela, and two children.
